Ambit Energy Expands Into Rhode Island, Delaware

Retail energy provider now represented in 11 states across America

DALLAS, TX - November 5, 2013 - Ambit Energy, a leading retail energy provider of electricity and natural gas in deregulated states across the country, announced its expansion into Delaware and Rhode Island, as well as the expansion of its natural gas services into PECO territory for Pennsylvania residents. The company began accepting customer enrollments in these markets on October 30, 2013. AmbitCast 2012 was seen live by more than 8,500 Ambit Energy Independent Consultants and featured guest speaker Darren Hardy, renowned author and Publisher of SUCCESS Magazine.

Adding new markets in Delaware, Rhode Island and Pennsylvania allows Ambit Energy to expand its service offering to nearly 1.5 million potential new customers.

"We have always had a goal to be the finest, most respected retail energy provider in America and are excited to see the growth of Ambit Energy in new states," said Jere Thompson, Jr., Co-founder and CEO for Ambit Energy. "With the support of our thousands of dedicated Consultants, the success of Ambit Energy will continue to shine into 2014 and beyond."

Surpassing $1 billion in revenue and 1 million residential customers¹ in just seven years, Ambit Energy expanded into 11 new markets in 2013, giving the company representation in 11 states across America.
