Ambit Energy Hires David Visneau as Senior Vice President of Commercial Products and Sales

DALLAS - March 30, 2015 - , a leading retail energy provider of electricity and natural gas in deregulated states across the country, announced today that David Visneau has joined the company as senior vice president of commercial products and sales.

In his new role, Visneau will be responsible for leading Ambit's commercial services team to increase the company's commercial presence in the deregulated markets where they operate. In addition, Visneau will focus on supporting Ambit's active base of Independent Consultants across the country by offering new products and services designed to attract Customers and provide opportunities to earn additional income. Ambit also announced a new partnership with Sunrun to provide solar solutions to new and existing Ambit customers in California, New Jersey, New York and Massachusetts. Enrollments for these new offers will begin in the second quarter of 2015.

"We are excited to have David join our team," said Chris Chambless, Co-founder and Chief Marketing Officer of Ambit Energy.

"With his extensive experience in deregulated energy, David will bring fresh insight and be invaluable in guiding our growing commercial portfolio to position the company for continued success."

Visneau has more than 20 years of sales management experience and most recently served as senior vice president at Champion Energy Services. Visneau also spent the last 15 years in the deregulated energy market leading teams at some of the largest retail electric companies in the country, including Reliant, Sempra Energy Solutions, Constellation Energy and Integrys Energy.

"Ambit Energy has become one of the fastest growing retailers in the country and developed a reputation for excellence in the deregulated energy market," said Visneau. "I look forward to helping them continue that tradition of rapid growth and outstanding service."
