

Ambit Energy Expands Residential and Small Commercial Service in Ohio

DALLAS, TX – April 29, 2016 – Ambit Energy, the world's largest direct seller of energy and a leading national retail energy provider, announced enrollment is now open for the estimated one million potential residential and small commercial gas and electric customers in the Duke Energy service area. Ambit also entered the Columbia Gas of Ohio service area in March.

"We expanded our service area in Ohio last month and we're excited to extend our reach even farther throughout the state to meet customer demand," said Jere Thompson, Jr., Co-Founder and CEO of Ambit Energy. "Our rapid growth in Ohio also enables our company to create additional opportunities for current and future Independent Consultants, who are the backbone of Ambit's success."

Founded in 2006 by Thompson and Chris Chambless, Ambit provides electricity and natural gas services in deregulated markets in 16 states and Washington D.C., primarily using a direct sales channel of more than 400,000 Independent Consultants. Ambit, headquartered in Dallas, first entered the state servicing the AEP Ohio area in the fall of 2015. The company has more than 1.3 million customers nationwide and recorded revenue of $1.37 billion in 2015.

About Ambit Energy

Ambit Energy provides electricity and natural gas services in deregulated markets across the United States, primarily marketed through a direct sales channel of more than 400,000 Independent Consultants. Ambit was established in 2006 with one simple goal in mind: to be the finest and most-respected retail energy provider in America. To that end, the Ambit team has built an award-winning Customer Care Center, as well as great relationships with energy partners, Consultants and Customers alike. The strategy is working. Ambit was named the fastest-growing private company in the country for 2010 by Inc. Magazine, and has already surpassed milestones of one million customers and $1 billion in annual sales.
